

~~SECRET~~

JOURNAL
OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 13 April 1973

25X1

2. [] Left with Phyllis Bacon, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, three copies of the "World Opium Survey of 1972."

25X1

3. [] and I lunched with Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, who expressed concern over []

25X1

[] and various rumors about what is going on in CIA.

25X1

[] We also talked of the problem of Senator Proxmire's call for a drastic cut in community budgets and personnel strengths. Braswell understands that the Director's visit with Chairman Stennis yesterday went well, but expects that our Subcommittee will probably want to hear from the Director regarding developments in the Agency in the fairly near future, and may also want to call on [] to appear in order to clarify his responsibilities and views.

25X1

4. [] During a brief encounter with Senator Stuart Symington today he asked me when [] was coming aboard. I did not know the answer, but promised I'd try to find out.

25X1

25X1

25X1

~~SECRET~~